

ISPI Potomac presents
Performance Thinking Breakthrough: The Six Boxes® Approach
A Full-Day Workshop—Wednesday July 14th

Dr. Carl Binder, PhD, CPT

Looking for a Fast On-Ramp to Performance Improvement?

Register today for this 1-day workshop that receives rave reviews and encore requests at ISPI's annual conferences and from companies around the world.

Dr. Carl Binder, internationally-known consultant, has been helping teams accelerate performance and improve results for over 30 years. His breakthrough step-by-step Six Boxes® approach provides a powerful foundation for building a performance-savvy culture. Global organizations – including ISPI Advocates, Microsoft, Amgen and Amerigroup – have adopted The Six Boxes Approach as a foundation for performance improvement methods and programs.

“It’s amazing how performance thinking is starting to take hold from our executive team down to front-line managers. We’re seeing a big pay-off in terms of employee satisfaction and manager performance.”

—Dir. of Organizational Development
